

ARTIST: Claudio Chanquet Rodrigo

ABOUT HIS WORK:

It is a long and sinuous path that leads to expression; diving into the human essence. It is an attempt to depict attitudes, gestures, always suggested; an intention of barely telling stories –an instant of a story. Men and women look at each other, they touch, they talk, and they ignore one another. The paintings talk about them –about us? They suggest events of some moments. And I invite the observer to make their own story, another story.
